The University of Virginia School of Nursing has established the "Sarah E. Harvey Memorial Loan Fund" in memory of this 1963 graduate of Prince Edward Academy who recently died in an automobile accident. The School of Nursing, in establishing this memorial loan fund, creates a permanent and suitable memorial to Sarah. The fund was started with a donation of $125 from the Class of 1972 and the fund will enable future nursing students to borrow without interest sums of $100 to $500 for a period of from two to six months to aid in the payment of tuition and the purchase of books and uniforms. Sarah Elgie Harvey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harvey, and was graduate cum laude from Prince Edward Academy, Elgie, as she was affectionately known by her high school classmates, was a member of the Library Club and Tri-Hi-Y. Elgie received the Mary White Cox Scholarship to Longwood College where she received her Bachelor's Degree. After teaching for several years, Elgie, who had always been interested in the field of nursing, entered the University of Virginia School of Nursing. She was enrolled in the School of Nursing at the time of the tragic accident. A letter received from those establishing the memorial loan fund indicates that any donation that friends would like to make should be mailed directly to this address: Mrs. Mary Lanaham, "Sarah E. Harvey Memorial Loan Fund," University of Virginia School of Nursing, McKim Hall, Charlottesville, Va. 22903.
